

INTRODUCTION

The meeting was called to order by President Paul Neuharth. We discussed the success of the bike rodeo last weekend, thank you to Steve and Roland. The Safer Foundation is looking for paid position drivers, reach out to Rex if interested. Tim said the Flags will be put up for the first time this year. Paul advised the group that if you want a polo ($30) or tshirt ($15) reach out to him with size and color. Joseph spoke of needing volunteers for the Youth Appreciation, please reach out to him. Lastly, please RSVP to Tim Smith for our Miss Iowa Luncheon.

SPEAKER

Our presenter today was Theresa Hauman from Davenport Park and Recreation, she is the Senior Recreation Manager. She spoke of the many programs the city is working on. She also discussed the $170,000 in scholarships they were able to donate back to the youth of the Quad Cities and the partners they worked with to achieve their goals. Lastly, she discussed the many uses of the passes throughout the city including: River Bandits games, pool usage, Putnam, Figge, YMCA and more!
